Accept our worship gracious God. Be present with us as daystar, miracle, mystery and as the tender hands of grace. Amen.

Let all our words and actions, our love and service bear witness to Your resurrection power; for the sake of our living Lord, Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Sacrament of Holy Communion

The Approach

Liturgist: Beloved in Christ, the Gospel tells us that on the first day of the week Jesus Christ was raised from death, appeared to Mary Magdalene, on that same day sat at table with two disciples and was made known in the breaking of bread.

People: This is the joyful feast of the people of God. Come from the east and the west, the north and the south and gather about Christ's table.

The Eucharistic Prayer

Liturgist: The God of every morning be with you.

People: And also with you.

Liturgist: People of Easter morning, lift up your hearts!

People: We lift them to the One who has raised Jesus from the grave.

Liturgist: People of Easter's joy, give thanks to the One who raises us to new life.

People : We sing our alleluia's to the God of everlasting love.

Liturgist: How good it is on this day of joy to lift our glad songs of praise to You, Redeemer of the lost. You planted Your steadfast love in the gardens of creation, but we ate the bitter fruit of idolatry and sin. Prophets came in Your name, bringing Your gracious word, but we could not hear them call our name. When we were about to perish, when we could have died, You sent the One who could bear that threat away. Therefore, on this day and every day, with those in heaven and those on earth, we lift our glad cries to You:

All: Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
All creation is blessed with new life on this day.
Hosanna in the highest!
Blessed is the One who comes bringing your resurrection power.
Hosanna in the highest!

Liturgist: Holy are You, God of Easter, and blessed is Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior, sent by You to bring us salvation. Your right hand, He releases us from sin's grip; walking through the darkness of death, He leads us into the kingdom's light; confounding the practitioners of evil, He did good for others; humbling himself to experience our pain and suffering, He is raised to rule over all. As we believe what we may not understand, we trust that mystery we call faith:

All: Christ has died, but death does not have the final word;
Christ is risen, and Easter begins for us when Christ calls us by name.
Christ will come again and lead us into God's glory.

Liturgist: Pour out Your Holy Spirit upon the Bread and the Cup, Resurrecting God, and upon us who seek to be Your children. When we are done eating and drinking with the Risen Lord, send us forth to feed the hungry. Served at the Table by the One who freed us from death, we would go out to be servants of the poor and oppressed in our world. Called to proclaim the good news of Easter, we would do so with our hands and hearts, not just our lips.

Through Christ, glory and honor, praise and thanksgiving are Yours, God of new life, with the Holy Spirit, in Your holy people, on this first day of the week and in all the days to come.

The Prayer of Thanksgiving

Liturgist: May Jesus, the true Savior of the world, Who died for us and is seated in glory, dwell in your hearts through the Holy Spirit, that you may be wholly alive in Him, through living faith and perfect love.
